- CPNI rules are reviewed on a regular basis with employees that have access to CPNI.
- Employees with access to CPNI have been trained on when they are, and are not, authorized to use CPNI.
- A process that meets the notice requirements of the rules has been developed for notifying customers of their CPNI rights and requesting approval to use CPNI via “opt-out” method.
- Company provides CPNI notification to customers every two years.
- Customer account records show the approval/denial status for the account.
- Company retains CPNI notification and approval records for 2 years.
- Company maintains a record of any marketing campaigns of its own or its affiliates that use customers’ CPNI. These records are maintained for a minimum of one year.
- An outbound marketing supervisory review process has been established.
- Company will not provide CPNI to third parties without the customer’s approval via the opt-in process.
- Company has a defined disciplinary process in place for violations and for improper use of any information in customer records which would include CPNI.
